

INSIGHT

- Halloween takes place on 31st October and is one of the biggest seasonal consumer events in the UK after Christmas and Easter.
- Retail spending is expected reach over £470 million.
- 73% of parents with children 6-12 participate in Halloween.
- 71% of millennials will spend money on Halloween.
- 68% of Halloween shoppers will spend up to £25, the remaining 32% will spend up to £85.
- 52% of UK Halloween shoppers plan to be prepared for trick or treaters by spending on celebratory food & drink.
- £160 million is expected to be spent on fancy dress costumes.

RATIONALE

- Families with children will be on the streets to celebrate Halloween. This is a perfect opportunity for brands to use OOH to target key audiences.
- There is also a rise in millennials using Halloween as a social event.
- This is a great opportunity for retailers and FMCG to promote its products such as sweets, food/drinks, costumes and other party and social accessories.
- There are tactical one day opportunities as well as the half term coverage.

THE OPPORTUNITIES

Please speak to Talon regarding opportunities in OOH around this event.